K. GITHUB SUBMISSION NORMS TO BE FOLLOWED BY ALL TEAMS

- Repository naming convention: KLH-<Branch>-<AcademicYear>-<TeamID>-<ShortProjectName>; one repository per team, retained for the full duration of the project.
- Mandatory folder structure: /src, /docs, /data (or a documented data source reference), /results, /reports, and a top-level README.md.
- The README.md must carry the project title, team member names with ID numbers, the supervisor's name, an abstract, setup and execution instructions, and the current phase status.
- Every team member must commit under their own GitHub account so that individual contribution is verifiable from the commit history; bulk uploads by a single member are not accepted.
- Commits must be made progressively through the phase — a minimum of one meaningful commit per week per team — and each phase deliverable must be tagged (for example, review-1, review-2, final).
- Access is to be granted to the supervisor and the Course Coordinator; the repository must remain accessible until the final project evaluation is completed.
- Credentials, API keys, licensed datasets and any confidential institutional data must not be committed to the repository.
- The repository URL, once recorded in Section D, is not to be renamed or transferred without the written consent of the Course Coordinator.

L. ENCLOSURES

- Annexure I — Attendance sheet of students (signed).
- Annexure II — Evaluation sheets / rubric score sheets of the panel.
- Annexure III — Screenshots of repository verification (commit history / contributor graph).
- Annexure IV — Photographs of the review session.
- Annexure V — Any other document (to be specified).
